Program Description

Spend a weekend with other married women who are facing a range of feelings regarding their sexual identity and all of the dilemmas posed by the recognition of loving women. Through the use of professional guidance and small group interaction the workshop will focus on:

- Clarifying your sexual identity (Are you a lesbian, bisexual, or what?)
- Making difficult decisions about your marriage/Evaluating lifestyle options
- Resolving guilt and sadness about hurting loved ones
- Facing fears (homophobia, ending up alone, rejection by children or family)
- Living a double life (love triangles: secrecy or openness and the balancing act)
- How to approach husband
- Parenting concerns

How You Can Benefit from this Workshop

- Share your story with other married women
- Develop a new support network
- Learn the steps that lead to self-acceptance
- Identify obstacles that prevent you from moving forward
- Leave with resources, both in your area and online

About the Presenter

Merav Segal will be leading the workshop, using the program developed by Joanne Fleisher.

Merav went through her own coming out process while married to a man and has helped others through similar transitions. She has a private practice in New York City and has co-led the weekend workshop with Joanne.

They both moderate the Internet forum "Ask Joanne," for married women who are questioning their sexual orientation or facing coming out issues.

Joanne authored Living Two Lives: Married to a Man and in Love with a Woman and has a private psychotherapy practice in Philadelphia. She offers phone or Skype sessions for people not local.

What Others Have Said About their Group Experience

"The group taught me to stop asking myself why, that why wasn't the issue. Trusting myself was."

"I had been going to individual therapy for about a year before I went to the workshop, but those two days with Joanne (and all the 25 amazing women who were there, and the two other therapists, as well) PROPELLED and CATAPULTED and INSPIRED me beyond my wildest expectations!"

"Joanne and the other workshop leaders were insightful facilitators, and warm, caring people. I surprised myself by talking so much, but I guess I felt safe and comfortable."

Travel Arrangements

If you need hotel accommodations, we recommend the Alexander Inn (www.alexanderinn.com), which is close to the workshop location. Rooms are small, but very reasonably priced. There may be other hotels in the area as well.
